

ACCESS GUIDE

Bryce Canyon National Park

SERVICES

VISITOR CENTER

Two moderately sloping ramps lead from the parking lot to the Visitor Center. The building is equipped with a lowered information/sales desk and fully accessible auditorium with a 22-minute captioned film. Restrooms have fully-accessible stalls.

RESTROOMS

Accessible restroom stalls are available at the Visitor Center, Bryce Canyon Lodge, the General Store, Sunset Point, Sunset Campground Loop A and Group Site, Farview Point, and Rainbow Point.

CAMPING

Sites 223 and 224 in Loop A of Sunset Campground are reserved for visitors with mobility impairments. These sites offer pull-through access, picnic tables with extensions, and stand-up fire grills. The sites are located across from a fully accessible restroom. Sunset Campground is closed during winter months (typically mid-October through late-April).

LODGING

The Sunrise Unit of Bryce Canyon Lodge (888-297-2757 or 435-834-5361) has rooms designed for handicapped access with adjacent handicapped parking facilities. Motel rooms outside the park also offer accessible rooms. Specify that you would like these rooms when you make reservations.

HORSEBACK RIDING

The two-hour horseback ride below the rim is a great way to see the rock formations if you have a strong sense of balance and some upper leg muscle control. For more information, contact Canyon Trail Rides at the Bryce Canyon Lodge or call 435-834-5500 or 435-679-8665.

HEARING IMPAIRED

RANGER PROGRAMS

During the summer, National Park Service rangers offer several walks and talks which are accessible to visitors with mobility impairments. Some activities are listed below, but check the Ranger Program Schedule at the visitor center for exact times and locations.

GEOLOGY TALK Join a ranger for a 30-minute talk on the geology of Bryce Canyon. Talks are held at Sunset Point, which has good access. Learn the story behind the scenery, while enjoying a canyon view.

RIM WALK Enjoy the afternoon colors and longer shadows as a ranger discusses Bryce Canyon's geology, and natural and cultural history. This 1½ hour walk follows the rim along a paved, relatively level section of trail.

EVENING PROGRAMS Auditoriums in both the Visitor Center and Bryce Canyon Lodge are wheelchair-accessible. North Campground Amphitheater is not recommended for wheelchairs.
