

Ponca Wilderness

Pack it in-Pack it out | Leave No Trace | Respect the Resource

Hiking Trail	Length (mi)	Description
BRT (Buffalo River Trail)	15/36	Moderate-Strenuous; elevation changes frequently through this stretch of the BRT, with steep ascents/descents
HH (Hemmed-in-Hollow)	3.8	Moderate-Strenuous; steep trail from Compton, moderate when accessed from the River, brings you to the 204ft waterfall
HB (Horseshoe Bend)	1.4	Moderate-Strenuous; steep and gradual inclines, views of Granny Henderson's
Horse/Hiking Trail	Length (mi)	Description
BT (Bench Trail)	4.4	Easy-Moderate; midslope old road connects the Wilderness with the Erbie area, muddy areas and ice storm damaged trees are common
CP (Centerpoint)	3.5	Moderate; more than 1000 feet of gradual elevation change, the old Centerpoint road is rough, but brings you to the heart of the Wilderness
CR (Chimney Rock)	3.6	Moderate; mostly an old road, washed in sections where elevation changes rapidly, beautiful flowers dot the trail in spring
ORT (Old River Trail)	9/20	Easy-Moderate; crosses the River 15 times in the Ponca stretch, the ORT traverses many vegetation types, old homesites, sandy/rocky bottomlands
SC (Sneeds Creek)	4.4	Moderate-Strenuous; very washed and steep in sections, the lower section crosses the scenic Sneeds Creek several times