MOVIE AND DISCUSSION: PORTRAIT OF A COAST - 21st CENTURY

2 PM, 45 minutes. From the Storm of 1978 to the new Chatham inlet created during the April 2007 nor'easter, Cape Cod's coastline is constantly changing. Join a ranger for a viewing and discussion of this updated film that beautifully documents and explains our dynamic coast.

Tuesday, November 12

TALK: STATE OF THE SEASHORE - CHALLENGES AND SUCCESSES OF 2013, AND A LOOK AHEAD TO 2014 - 6:30 PM, 1 hour. Join Superintendent George Price for a discussion and questions about the national seashore.

Tuesdays, November 12 and 26

TALK: ALL ABOUT HORSESHOE CRABS - 2:30 PM, 40 minutes.

What has 10 eyes, survived the extinction of the dinosaurs, crushes its food between its shoulders, and has been directly involved in the health of nearly everyone in the developed world? Join a ranger and learn about these most fascinating animals. Family program.

Tuesday, November 19

ILLUSTRATED PROGRAM: STORMY NIGHTS 2 PM, 45 minutes.

Cape Cod is known as the "Graveyard of the Atlantic," with over 3,000 recorded wrecks. Join a ranger to find out why so many wrecks occurred and hear their compelling stories.

Saturday, December 1

ACTIVITY TABLE - 11 AM to 3 PM. Drop by to see what rangers are showcasing.

The Nauset Bike Trail between Salt Pond Visitor Center and Tomahawk Trail is closed for rehabilitation. The Nauset Marsh Trail has a closed section due to last winter's storm damage. Ask for details at the visitor center

Salt Pond Visitor Center, Route 6 at Nauset Road, Eastham, (508) 255 - 3421 Ext. 0
Open daily, except Thanksgiving and Christmas day, from 9 AM to 4:30 PM. ♿

This visitor center offers magnificent views of Salt Pond, Nauset Marsh, and the Atlantic; an outstanding museum; and park films. Staff are on duty to help with trip planning, and there is a well-stocked store offering books, maps, puzzles, games and other national seashore-related items for sale. Restrooms are available in the parking area. The Nauset Marsh and Buttonbush trails, and the Nauset Bicycle Trail are located nearby.
