CONSTRUCTION OF TURTLE MOUND

Canaveral National Seashore will begin routine construction to replace the entrance walkway to the historic Turtle Mound, beginning January 25, 2015. The boardwalk ascending the mound and the surrounding areas will remain open during this project and available for continued public enjoyment.

About the National Park Service. More than 20,000 National Park Service employees care for America's 401 national parks and work with communities across the nation to help preserve local history and create close-to-home recreational opportunities. Learn more at www.nps.gov.
