Includes the Frisia schoolhouse, Blacksmith shop, the Gifford House store and museum, and other buildings and features.

Orchards have apples, peaches, cherry, pear, plum, apricot, and almond trees. Historical and botanical varieties are found here. You may pick and eat fruit free of charge while in the orchards. A nominal fee is charged to take fruit with you. Harvest times vary. Check at the visitor center or call the fruit hotline 435-425-3791.

Accessibility We strive to make our facilities, services, and programs accessible to all. For information go to the visitor center, ask a ranger, call, or check our website.

Things To Do
Explore the beauty of Capitol Reef. Ranger-led activities are offered spring through fall. Schedules at the visitor center and on bulletin boards.

Ripple Rock Nature Center has interactive displays. Check at the visitor center for hours.

The paved, 8-mile Scenic Drive offers breathtaking views of the Waterpocket Fold. Entrance fee is charged beyond Fruita campground. Allow about three hours for the round-trip drive.

A variety of trails from easy to strenuous offer many options to explore the park. Please remember hiking in canyon country can be dangerous.

- Hike with others and tell someone of your hiking plan.
- Check at the visitor center for trail conditions.
- Monitor weather and be prepared for extreme temperatures.
- Sudden rains can cause flash floods.
- Carry one gallon of drinking water per person per day.
- Do not drink unpurified backcountry water.
- Trail guides are sold at the bookstore.

Pets are permitted in developed park areas only, not on hiking trails. They must be restrained on a leash, six feet or less, at all times. Clean up pet waste and place in a dumpster.

Bicycles are restricted to public roads at all times.
