

The Sandburg Spectrum

A Professional Development Opportunity

Workshops Offered on July 29 & 30, 2013

Deadline to Apply:
June 20, 2013

Award:
Certificate for 5 contact hours = 0.5 CEUs

Tuition & Lunch:
Free. Participants will also receive resource materials to supplement Sandburg curriculum in the classroom.

New for 2013:
Common Core State Standards have been integrated into the park's curriculum-based education program.

Teachers learn from a Sandburg Ranger during the workshops.

Students interact with goats during a school visit.

Educators from Kindergarten through High School are welcome to attend. Participants will learn how to create an exciting and innovative learning experience for their students by incorporating Carl Sandburg into their classroom instruction. The park offers lesson plans for use in the the classroom and during a site visit in many areas of study including: Social Studies, Language Arts, History and Science. This workshop will provide the tools needed to teach students about one of the most famous American writers of our time, all while making learning exciting and relevant. Visit www.nps.gov/carl/forteachers to learn more.
