

We honor your service.

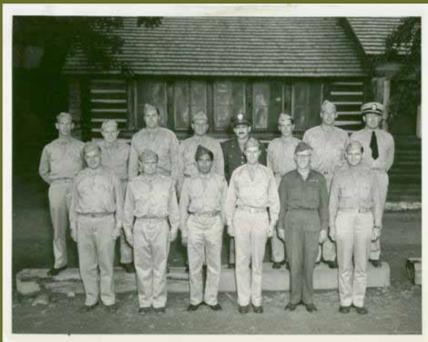

Celebrating the 75-year legacy of our military services in Catoctin Mountain Park.

Re-enlistment at Chimney Rock (above).

CCC camps were run by Army officers (left).

British sailors took R&R in the park during WWII (below).

Military officers trained operatives in the OSS during WWII (left).

Military personnel help the park with service projects (right, below).

