

Mary Bowser is one of two private landowners on the Park Advisory Commission.

Dr. Bowser is a Professor of Education in the College of Arts and Sciences at Shenandoah University where she has taught nineteen years. Prior to teaching at Shenandoah, she taught high school English for eight years. She holds a graduate degree from the University of Virginia. Today she teaches writing, undergraduate, and graduate education courses at Shenandoah and maintains a strong interest in secondary education. She chaired the Education Department for eight years, was elected to the Faculty Senate for six years, and also served as Senate President for two years. Lifetime Wellness Associates is her part-time health and wellness business. Dr. Bowser served as the first Chair of the Park Advisory Commission.

Mary Bowser, her husband, two children, and assorted pets live at Meadow Mills, a cabin built by her husband's grandfather in 1940.

