Chamizal National Memorial News Release

September 26, 2014

For Immediate Release

Chamizal National Memorial Changing Hours Effective October 1, 2014

Superintendent F. Gus Sanchez announces that beginning next Wednesday, October 1, there will be new hours for the Chamizal National Memorial grounds. “The grounds of the Memorial will now be open to the public from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. The new hours will apply to all foot traffic as well as vehicles,” said Superintendent Sanchez.

The Chamizal National Memorial Cultural Complex, including the Visitor Center, Museum, and park store, is open from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. daily. There is no overnight parking available. The entire Memorial, including the grounds, is closed only three days each year, on Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and New Year’s Day.

For questions or more information, please call the park at (915) 532-7273.
