

CALL FOR ART ENTRIES

The 2013 Kids & Teens Siglo de Oro Art Contest is a juried competition open to all artists of grade school, middle school, and high school ages. The contest's objective is to help students obtain a greater understanding of Spain's Golden Age of Literary and Dramatic Works and to introduce them to the Siglo de Oro Drama Festival, March 6 - 10 at Chamizal National Memorial.

The winning work will be selected that best meets the criteria listed below and is deemed the best work for its execution, style, creativity, and impact. Artwork chosen will be prominently displayed at Chamizal National Memorial and on its web site as well as Los Paisanos' web site before, during and after the Festival. Works by the winners will also be displayed in the Memorial's art galleries during a period designated by the Memorial.

Contest rules and criteria:

1. The work must reflect the Spanish Siglo de Oro era, with special emphasis on the dramatic arts of the period and Chamizal National Memorial's mission to promote diplomacy, peaceful resolution, and international friendship through cultural education.
2. All media (mediums) accepted: Painting (tempera, finger-paint, oil, alkyd, watercolor, acrylics, gouache, encaustic), drawing (crayon, pen & ink, pencil), printmaking (monotypes, lithographs, serigraphs), pastel, photography, digital art, sculpture and mixed media.
3. Artwork must be original, created by the artist.
4. Artist's parent must sign the Siglo de Oro Poster Contest Entry & Agreement Form and attach a copy of the form to the artwork. The form is available on-line at www.Los-Paisanos-Chamizal.com/kids-poster-contest
5. All entries must be received by December 10, 2012.

Multiple prizes: TBD

Entry fee: FREE—one entry per artist, please.

Delivery location: All works must be hand-delivered with completed entry form attached to the art to Chamizal National Memorial, 800 South San Marcial, El Paso, Texas 79905 by the deadline date.
