COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. The various state privacy acts govern the use of materials that document private individuals, groups, and corporations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a reproduction if the document does not infringe the privacy rights of an individual, group, or corporation. These specified conditions of authorized use include:

- non-commercial and non-profit study, scholarship, or research, or teaching
- criticism, commentary, or news reporting
- as a NPS preservation or security copy
- as a research copy for deposit in another institution

If a user later uses a copy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," the user may be personally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement. This institution's permission to obtain a photographic, xerographic, digital, or other copy of a document doesn't indicate permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, sell, distribute, or prepare derivative works from this document without first obtaining permission from the copyright holder and from any private individual, group, or corporation shown or otherwise recorded.

Permission to publish, exhibit, perform, reproduce, prepare derivative works from, sell, or otherwise distribute the item must be obtained by the user separately in writing from the holder of the original copyright (or if the creator is dead from his/her heirs) as well as from any individual(s), groups, or corporations whose name, image, recorded words, or private information (e.g., employment information) may be reproduced in the source material. The holder of the original copyright isn't necessarily the National Park Service. The National Park Service is not legally liable for copyright, privacy, or publicity infringement when materials are wrongfully used after being provided to researchers for "fair use."

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if fulfillment of the order is judged in violation of copyright or federal or state privacy or publicity law.

HISTORY

Since 1970, the preservation work at the park has been done largely by park staff. The documentation of work done by park staff, first and second generation Navajo masonry workers, is primarily visual. Stabilization reports continued to be produced by binding before and after photos and treatment forms together. The last bound report was in 1986. The complete set of Stabilization Reports (1933-1986) have been cataloged individually, and form two series in two collections: Coll 0021/001: RSU reports from 1933-1969; Coll 0022/001: Stabilization reports from 1970-2010.

Image metadata is being entered into a preservation database maintained by the University of Virginia and made available online through the Chaco Research Archive (Chacoarchive.org). Extra prints are maintained on photo cards and filed by site, room, then year for field reference by the park during annual work by the park preservation crew.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

Collection/Series: 0022/001
Series Title: 001: STABILIZATION REPORTS

Accession: CHCU-00704      Catalog Nbr: CHCU 107310
Inclusive Dates: 1970-1990

History: During the 1970s, stabilization work shifted from the RSU, based on Globe, to both the park and the newly created Western Archaeological and Conservation Center in Tucson. Between 1970-1976, reports were produced by park staff (Cecil Werito) and various NPS archaeologists based at SWAC/WACC. By 1977, reports were produced by either park staff or regional staff from Santa Fe working for the park. Thus, there is considerable overlap with Collection 21, Records of the Ruin Stabilization Unit from 1970-76. The date of 1970 was arbitrarily chosen as the start for this collection because it was the first year Cecil Werito produced a report, marking the assumption of preservation duties by park staff. After 1986, records were compiled on a yearly basis, but not bound.

Scope: Stabilization Reports, along with some annual reports, preservation forms, completion reports, "before" and "after" collections Most reports are bound originals.

Series Title: Prints

Accession: CHCU-00704      Catalog Nbr: CHCU 107310

History: (Prior to receiving additional materials from the park in 2010: Extent for 1970-1979 prints was 3813)

Scope: PRINTS OF PRESERVATION WORK From 1970-1978, the preservation crew continued to use the 4x5" negative format used by the RSU crew, although in 1973-74, 35mm film was used. In 1979 the crew used a mix of 120mm and 35mm film. The 4x5" and the 1973-74 35mm negatives are stored in individual envelopes. The 120 and 35mm film from 1979 is stored in 3-ring albums.

Negative numbers were assigned in the early-mid 1990s to the images in the bound stabilization reports, in a series beginning with the 1938 report through the 1986 report. Thus, images in the volumes are in negative order number, but this order did not correspond in any way to the film strip negative order. Negative strips have been cut and rehoused in negative order number to facilitate retrieval.

During the switch of film formats, it appears that multiple cameras were used to record a single shot. Because the prints were numbered first, it is impossible to tell which format negative was used to produce the print. Thus, one print image may have both 120mm and 35mm negatives with the same number.

(Prior to receiving additional materials from the park in 2010: 1970-1979 SCOPE NOTE: Photodocumentation of Park Preservation Crew work at Chaco Canyon NM between 1970-1974. See Item Records for descriptions of individual prints. Sites stabilized include Pueblo Bonito, Pueblo del Arroyo, Pueblo Pintado, Chetro Ketl, Hungo Pavi, Penasco Blanco, Bc 50, Bc 51, Bc 57, Bc 58, Bc 59, Casa Rinconada, Talus Unit, Una Vida, Kin Bineola, and Leyit Kin. )

Collection/Series: 0022/004.003

Series Title: Negatives

Accession: CHCU-00704      Catalog Nbr: CHCU 107310

History: NEGATIVE COLLECTION: From 1970-1978, the preservation crew continued to use the 4x5" negative format used by the RSU crew, although in 1973-74, 35mm film was used. In 1979 the crew used a mix of 120mm and 35mm film. The 4x5" and the 1973-74 35mm negatives are stored in individual envelopes. The 120 and 35mm film from 1979 is stored in 3-ring albums.

Negative numbers were assigned in the early-mid 1990s to the images in the bound stabilization reports, in a series beginning with the 1938 report through the 1986 report. Thus, images in the volumes are in negative order number, but this order did not correspond in any way to the film strip negative order. Negative strips have been cut and rehoused in negative order number to facilitate retrieval.

During the switch of film formats, it appears that multiple cameras were used to record a single shot. Because the prints were numbered first, it is impossible to tell which format negative was used to produce the print. Thus, one print image may have both 120mm and 35mm negatives with the same number.

Extents breakdown of NEGATIVE COLLECTION ("NEGATIVE COLLECTION" signify the collection that was already entered into re:d prior to receiving additional materials from the park in 2010. NEGATIVE COLLECTION is whats in the freezers?)

1970-1979: 5456
 1980-1989: 1556

 2000-2004: --
 2005-2009: 1332

Scope: PRESERVATION NEGATIVES, VARIOUS FORMATS The term "Negative Set" (which is used in the file unit name) refers to negatives and contact sheets that were originally received in binders from the park (in 2010) and grouped by year. The contact sheets are stapled to their respective sheet of negatives in all cases. Missing years are: 1983, 1984, 1990, 1991 and 2006

NEGATIVE COLLECTION: Includes 4x5" format film (1970-1978) 35mm format film (1973-1974) 120 & 35 mm format film (1979-)

(SCOPE breakdown of NEGATIVE COLLECTION. "NEGATIVE COLLECTION" signifies the collection that was already entered into re:d prior to receiving additional materials from the park in 2010. NEGATIVE COLLECTION is what's in the freezers?)

1970-1979: Sites include: Bc 50, Bc 51, Bc 53, Bc 57, Bc 58, Bc 59, Casa Chiquita, Casa Rinconada, Chetro Ketl, Doll House Site, Gallo Campground Site, Kin Bineola, Kin Kletso, Kin Klizhin, Kin Nahasbas, Kin Ya'a, Leyit Kin, Pueblo Alto, Pueblo Bonito, Pueblo del Arroyo, Rabbit Ruin, Talus Unit 1, Una Vida, and Wijiji.

Includes three formats: up until 1979, 4x5" negatives were made. Starting in 1979, 120mm film was used. 35mm film was used in 1973 and 1974.

Information on each image has been entered into a park-created Access database. A few basic descriptive fields have been imported into ANCS+ at the item level. Negatives housed in envelopes have all pertinent information written on the envelope. For negatives in albums, information can be found in the bound volumes or in the Preservation Crew database and cardfile at the park (see below).

Prints have been pasted onto 5x8 index cards to create a file system for the Preservation crew. The prints are filed by: Site name/number, room, wall, year. This file system is maintained in the Cultural Resources division offices at the park and is not considered part of the museum collection.

NB: Data entry for dimensions was defaulted to 4x5, and is inaccurate in many cases. The software does not allow global editing of the dimensions field, so corrections for 120mm and 35 mm film sizes were entered into the "Associated Materials" field.

Arrangement: "Negative Sets" are organized into folders and document boxes. Contact sheets begin in 1978, with the switch to 120, then 35mm film. Organized by year and by site, but not by negative number.

(ORGANIZATION already entered into re:d prior to receiving additional materials from the park in 2010. NEGATIVE COLLECTION is what's in the freezers?) 1970-1979: Negative numbers were assigned sequentially to prints in the bound stabilization reports. Because each stabilization action (usually on a room or kiva) has (ideally) both a before and after image, the two negatives associated with each action are from two time periods. Before and after images are often separated in date by months, and therefore come from different roles of film. 1980-1989: -- 1990-2009: Organized into binders by year. Binders include contact sheets and negatives. Each binder has a list of negative number used for each site in the front.) "Negative Sets" are arranged by year

NEGATIVE COLLECTION: Arranged by format:

1970-1989: arranged as follows: 4 x 5" negatives are arranged in negative order number in envelopes in boxes; 120mm negatives are in a 3-ring album; 35mm negatives from 1973-1974 are housed in envelopes in boxes; 1979 35mm film is housed in an album.

1990-1999: are arranged by year in binders, then by site name within each binder. Negative numbers for each site are within a single range, but the negative numbers are not sequential within a single roll of film.

(ARRANGEMENT already entered into re:d prior to receiving additional materials from the park in 2010. NEGATIVE COLLECTION is what's in the freezers? 1970-1979: Arranged in negative number order, by format: 4x5 negatives are in envelopes in boxes and 120mm negatives are in a 3-ring album. 35mm negatives from 1973-1974 are housed in envelopes in boxes; 1979 35mm film is housed in an album. For 35mm negatives housed in albums, the location field will note this. All others are in the negative collection boxes.

Negatives were filed into NPS Negative Envelopes and Stabilization Record Envelopes. In the case of 35mm negatives in the main Negative Collection, because of the numbering system, one envelope might hold the before images, e.g., #67919 and 67921, while the following envelope will hold the after images, e.g., #67920 and 67922. So the numerical ordering system is not precise. 1980-1989: Arranged by neg # according to format 1990-2009: Arranged by site name within each binder. Negative numbers for each site are within a single range, but the negative numbers are not sequential within a single roll of film.)

History: In November 1986, at the request of John Roney, BLM Albuquerque District archeologist and Peggy Gaudy, Farmington Resource Area archaeologist, Cecil Werito and Dabney Ford from the CCNHP stabilization program assessed the stabilization needs of Twin Angels Pueblo. Based on the scope of work provided by Werito and Ford, the BLM archeologists prepared the Interagency Agreement No. NM-910-IA-003. The pueblo is under the management of the BLM and is part of the Chaco Protection Site System as established by Public Law 96-550 enacted in 1980.

In 1991, BLM and NPS entered into an Interagency Agreement to conduct necessary preservation of four pueblitos located within BLM Farmington District Office. In the succeeding years this agreement was expanded to include eight additional pueblitos in the same region. These structures are listed on the National Register of Historic Places and the planning documents for these sites identify preservation treatment and maintenance as elements of their management. This report is limited to treatment documentation photos. All architectural and archeological documentation was compiled as part of the Historic American Buildings Survey recordation completed prior to this preservation work.
