

Join us and celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Wilderness Act!

When: Saturday, September 6, 2014, 1:00pm-4:00pm

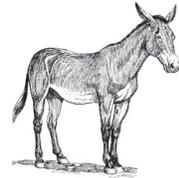

Where: Ferry Hill Plantation, C&O Canal Visitor Center, Sharpsburg Pike, Sharpsburg, MD

Who: Families, Friends, Adventurers, and Nature Lovers

What: Celebrate Wilderness!

Activities:

- “Leave No Trace” Corn-hole
- Wilderness Wildlife Exploration
- Meet a Mule- just like ones who pack in equipment to Wilderness Areas
- Nature Walk along the Ferry Hill Trail- start on the hour
- Displays on the history of the Wilderness Act and Preservation
- Explore Ferry Hill Plantation
- Learn basic photography techniques

Meet representatives from organizations such as the C&O Canal Trust, C&O Canal Association, Potomac Heritage National Scenic Trail, Chesapeake Bay Network and more! Find out what they are doing to preserve our wild places!

If we lose wilderness, we lose forever the knowledge of what the world was and what it might, with understanding and loving husbandry, yet become.

-- Harvey Broome (Co-founder of The Wilderness Society)

This event is co-sponsored with the National Park Service, Potomac Valley Audubon Society, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
