Registration Fee:

There is a $100 fee which supports field trips, course materials for the workshop, continental breakfasts, lunches and snacks for the duration of the conference. Evening meals are at participant's own expense.

If application is accepted, I can pay the $100 fee by July 1, 2015.

If accepted, I cannot attend workshop unless the $100 fee is waived because (please provide an explanation) _____

(Up to 5 scholarships may be awarded by the National Park Service that will cover the $100 fee for applicants. The National Park Service is unable to cover any other type of expense such as airfare or visa fees.)

Lodging:

Lodging is recommended if a commute would be more than a 1-hour drive to Little Rock. University of Arkansas at Little Rock (UALR) Dormitory lodging is available and will be paid for by the National Park Service at no expense to participants. Participants who choose to stay at local hotels instead are responsible for their own lodging expenses. A list of hotels near the meeting site can be provided upon request.

UALR Lodging is a college dorm style with a private bedroom and a bathroom shared by 1 to 3 suitemates. Linens and towels are provided. UALR Lodging is for Institute participants only. There is no television or internet in the dorm rooms.
