

FREEDOM FLIES HIGH

Colorado National Monument

JULY 4TH 2011

Celebrate Independence Day in grand style as the Mesa County Technical Search and Rescue Team raises Old Glory on top of Independence Monument. This tradition was started 100 years ago by John Otto, the Monument's first ranger.

CELEBRATION DETAILS

10:15am - 11:00am

Join a Park Ranger for the Flag Raising & patriotic music performed by a brass quintet
Independence Monument Overlook

11:00am - 12:00pm

Ice Cream Social & Influx Jazz Concert
Saddlehorn Picnic Area

Photo by Christopher Tomlinson

Bring a picnic lunch, lawn chairs, sunscreen and water for this fun-filled day.
Call (970) 858-3617 x360 or visit our website www.nps.gov/colm for more information.

Ice Cream Social, concert, and commemorative celebration made possible by a generous donation from the Grand Valley Rotary Clubs.

