

WOMEN'S RIGHTS ARE HUMAN RIGHTS

Declaration of Sentiments Graphic Organizer

Declaration of Sentiments	Women today
He has never permitted (allowed) her to exercise (use) her inalienable (undeniable) right to the elective franchise (vote).
He has compelled (forced) her to submit to laws, in the formation of (to create) which she had no voice (no women lawmakers).
He has taken from her all right in property (houses, land, money) even to the wages (money earned while working) she earns.
He has denied her the facilities (places) for obtaining a thorough education—all colleges being closed against her (not allowed to go to college).	