

Columbia Crest Summit

The history of glaciers and volcanic processes has been intertwined since the construction of the present mountain began about 500,000 years ago.

Photo by Donal Mullineaux, USGS