

What do all of these buildings have in common? Consider their purpose, their location, their significance, their construction, etc.

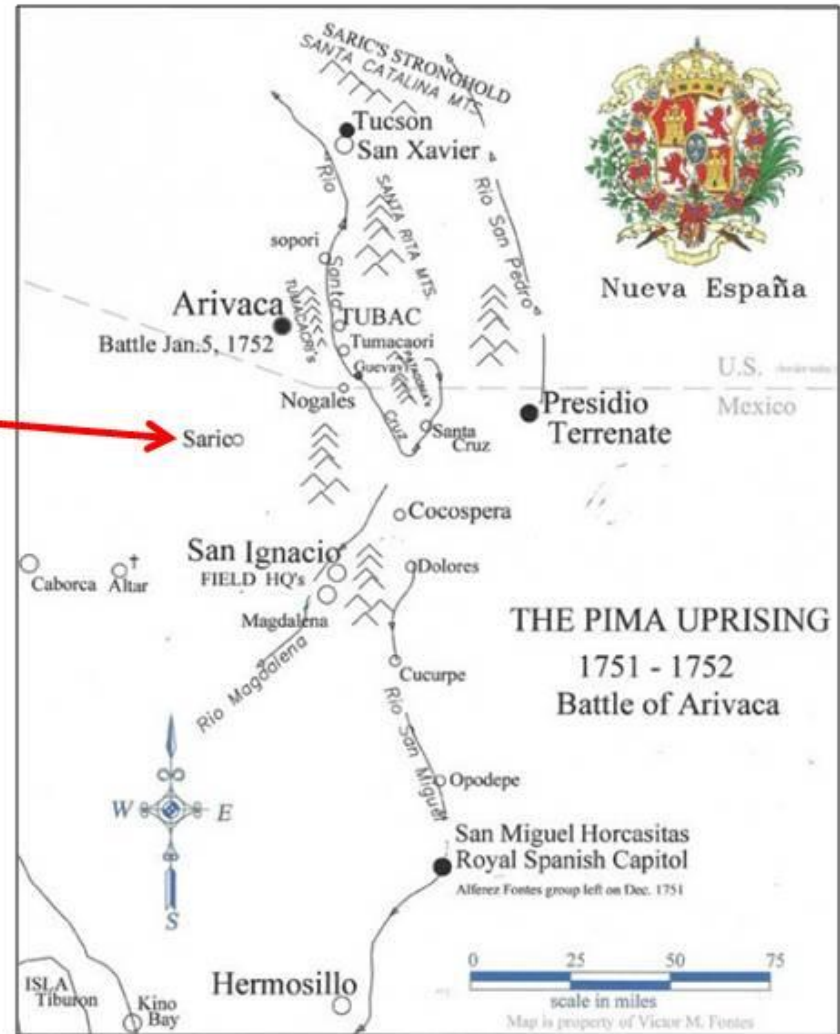

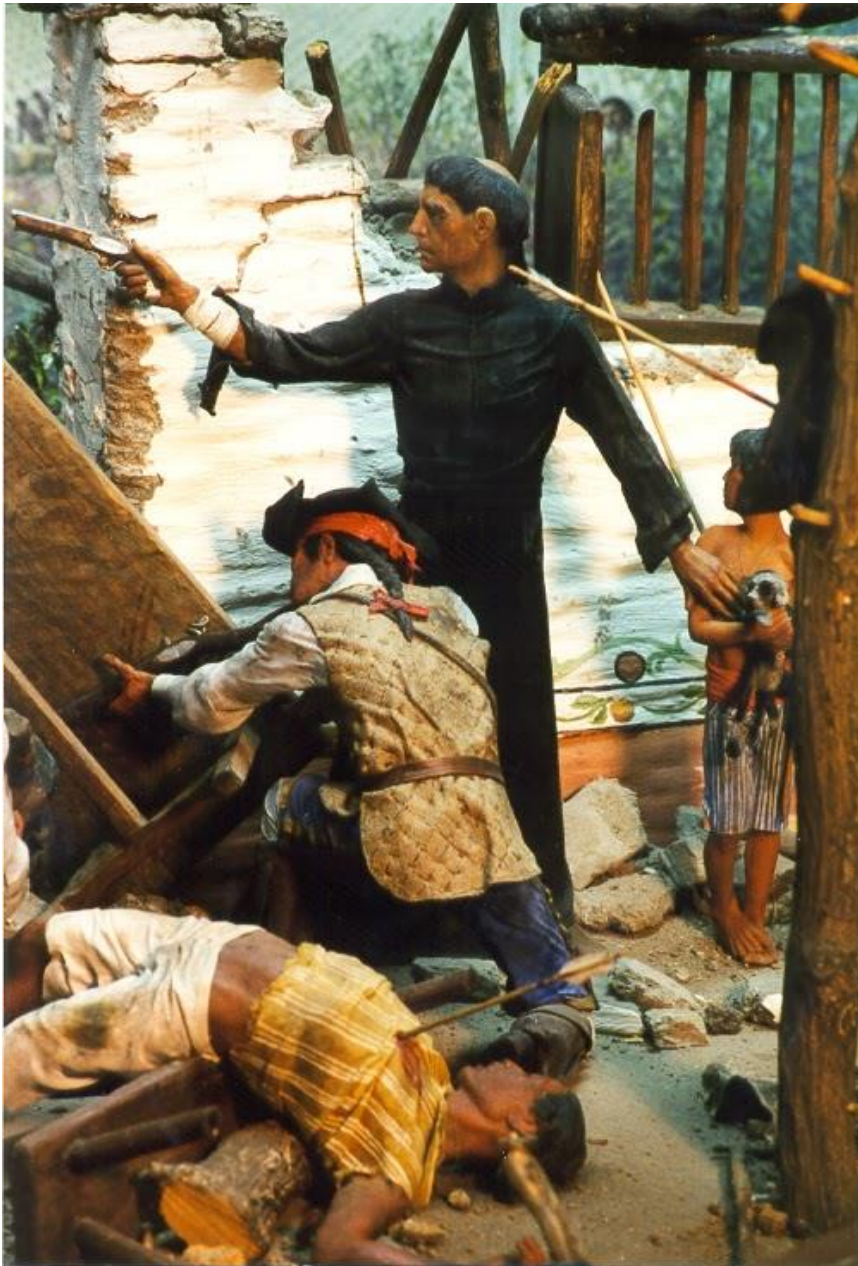

Luis Oacpicagigua

Luis of Saric

Saric

Diorama of Rebellion,
Tumacácori NHP Museum

Timeline

- 1691: Father Kino establishes Catholic Jesuit missions in the Pimería Alta, including Guevavi with Tumacácori as a visita
- September, 1751: Luis Oacpicagigua (Luis of Sáric) commands large force of O'odham warriors to help Spanish suppress Seri Indian revolt on Tiburón Island
- November, 1751: Luis named Captain General by Governor Ortiz Parrilla; he encounters Fathers Garrucho and Keller; rebellion begins on November 20th ; dozens are killed by the rebels, missions and haciendas are burned and looted

- December, 1751: Spanish forces move against Luis; Ortiz Parrilla attempts to negotiate with Luis
- January, 1752: near Arivaca, Luis' forces are defeated by Bernardo de Urrea, Spanish captain; Luis and the remaining rebels hide out in the Santa Catalina Mountains
- March, 1752: after much negotiation Luis surrenders to Ortiz Parrilla, is pardoned and placed in house arrest
- 1755: Luis dies in Spanish prison
- 1767 Jesuits are expelled by the Spanish King

