

Mystery Microorganisms

Microorganism Clues

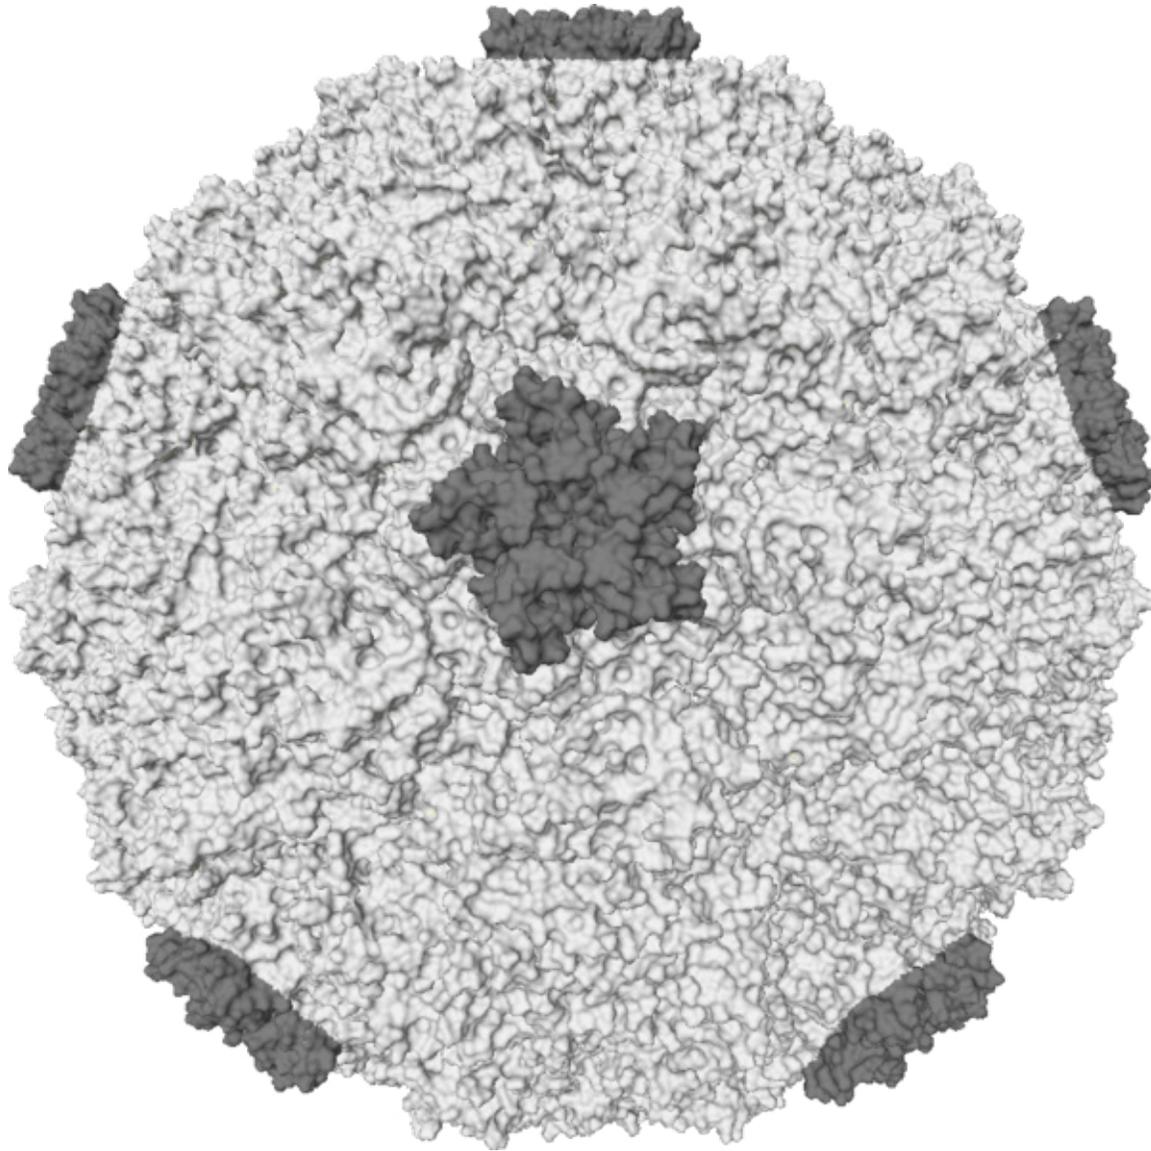

Mystery Microorganism #1

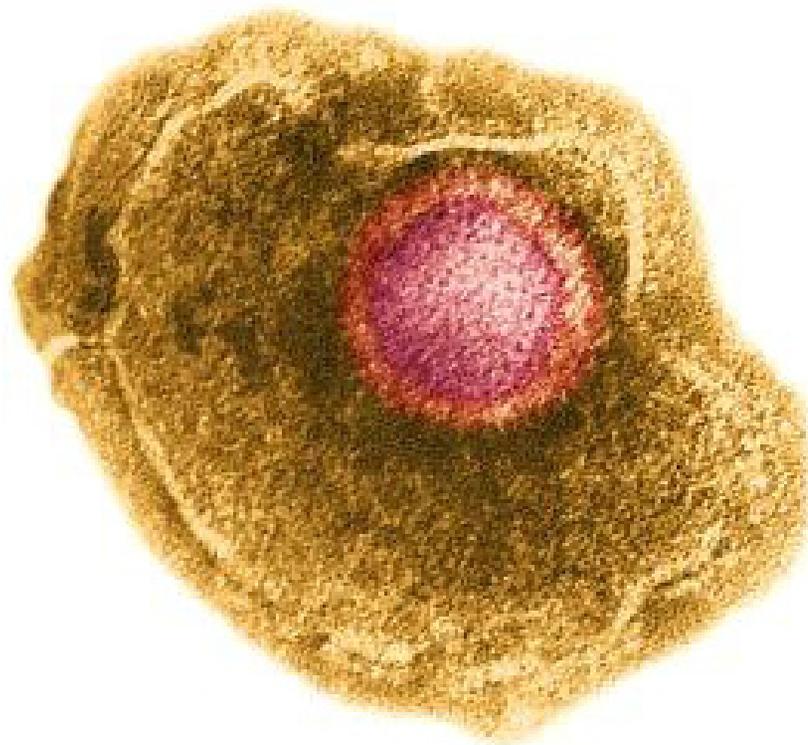

HIV/AIDS

Mystery Microorganism #1

The common cold is caused by this microorganism (antibiotics do not help cure colds)

Mystery Microorganism #1

Chicken pox

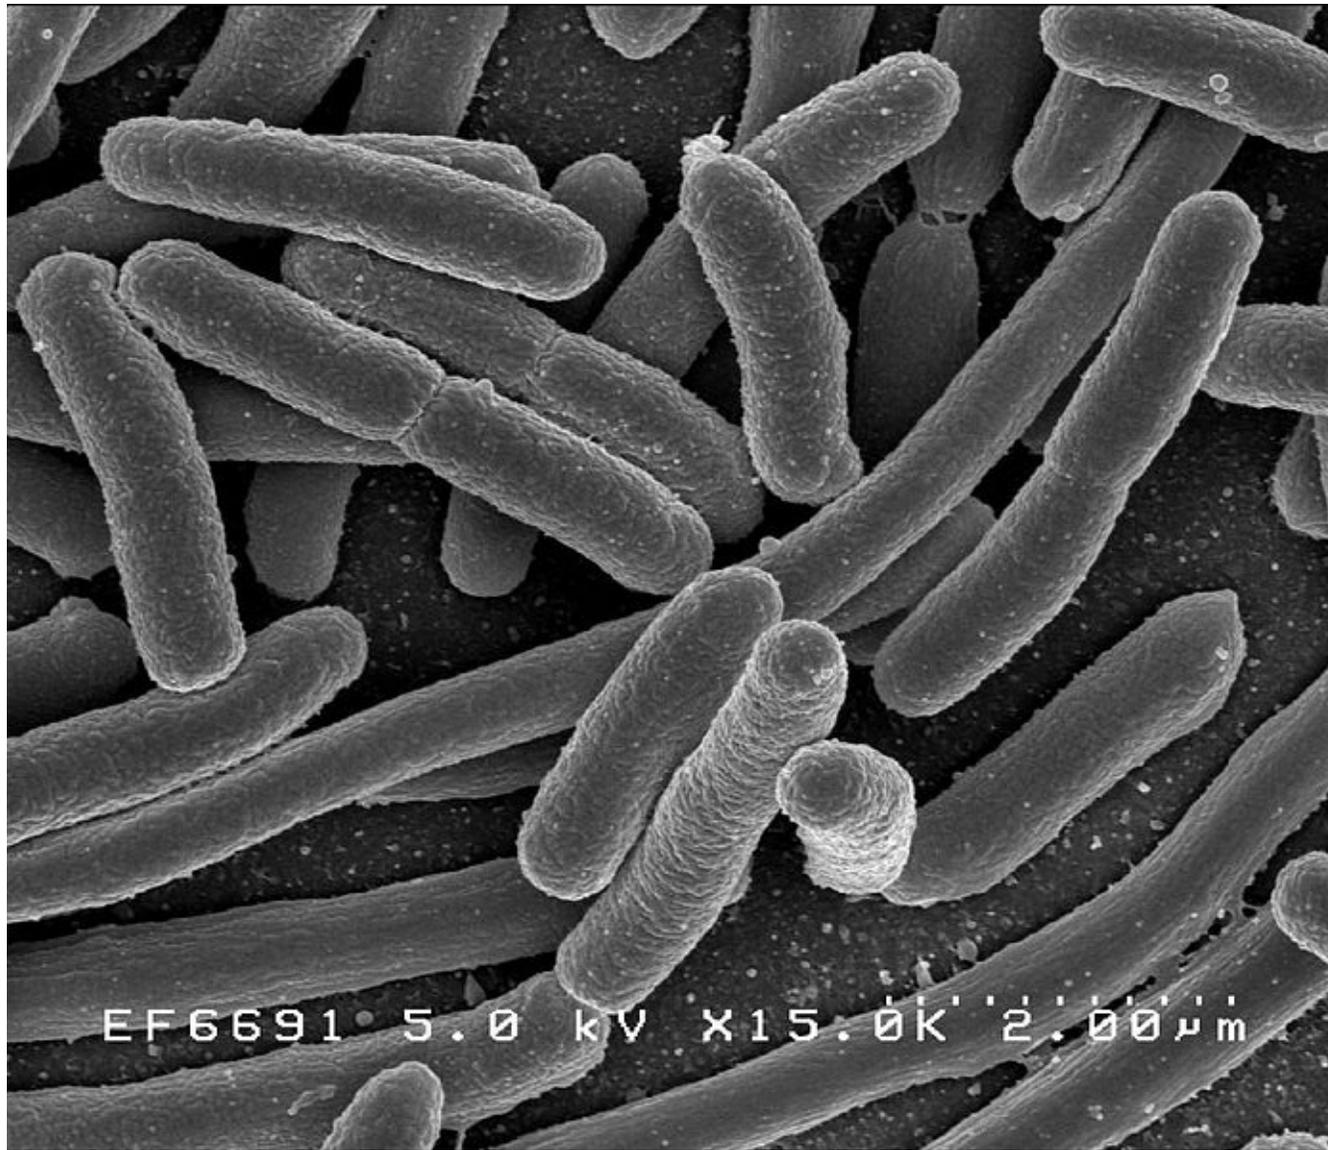

Mystery Microorganism #2

NPS/BRYANNA FLOG

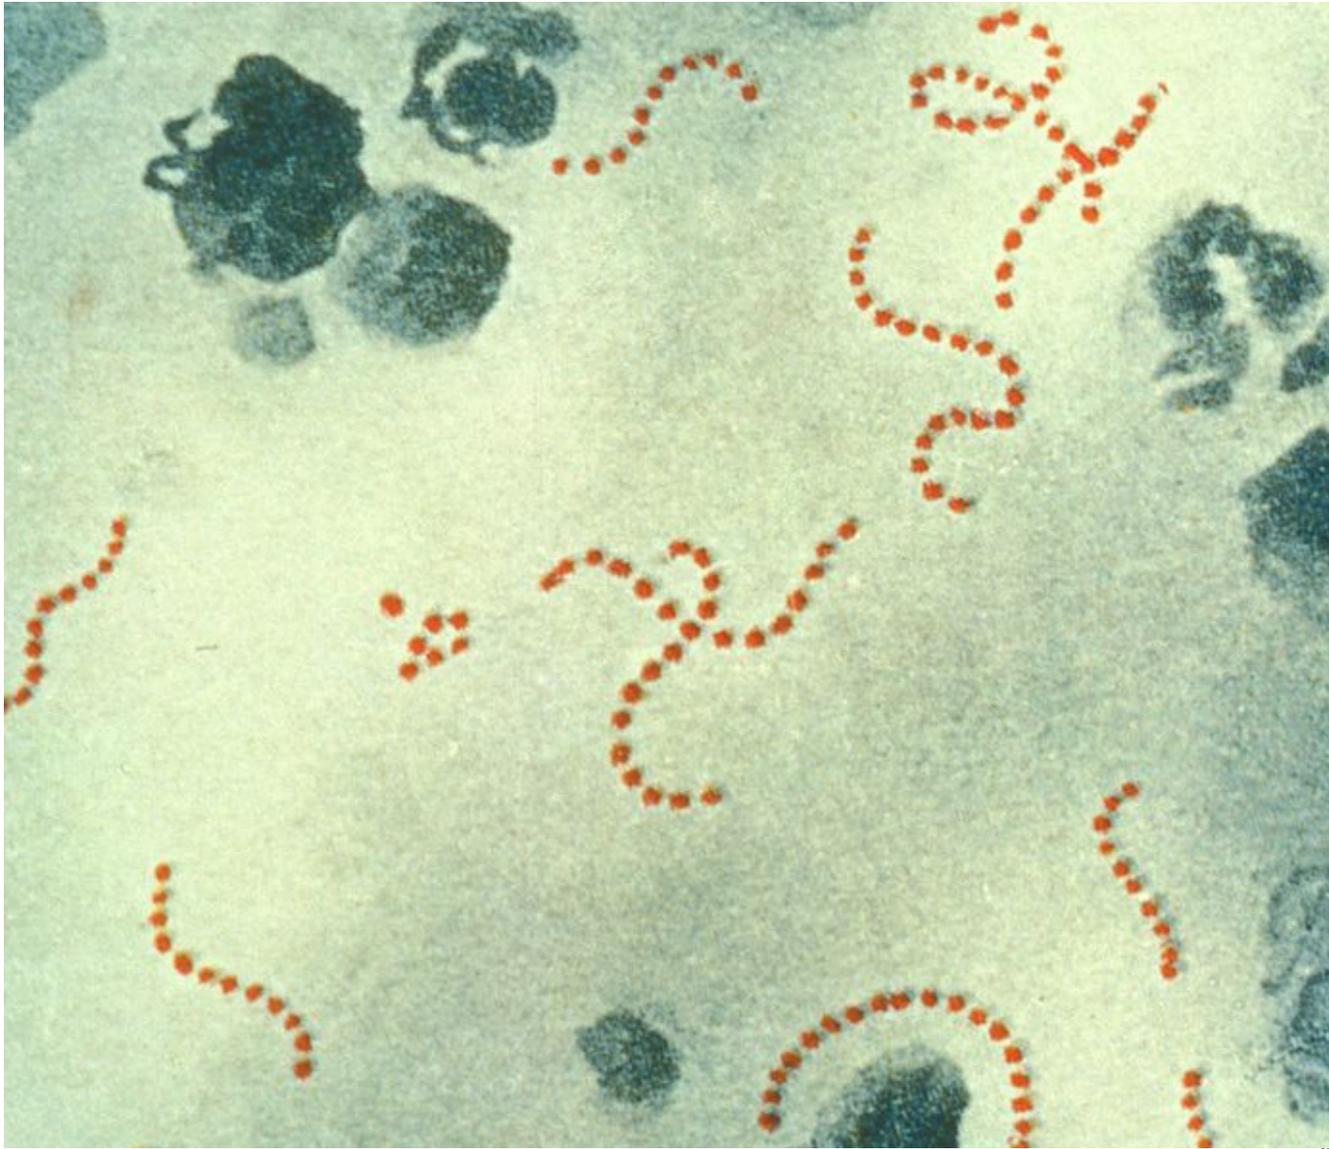

Yogurt contains a healthy type of this microorganism.

Mystery Microorganism #2

E. coli is usually good for helping us digest food in our intestine, but a bad strain (type) can be lethal when transmitted from contaminated food.

Mystery Microorganism #2

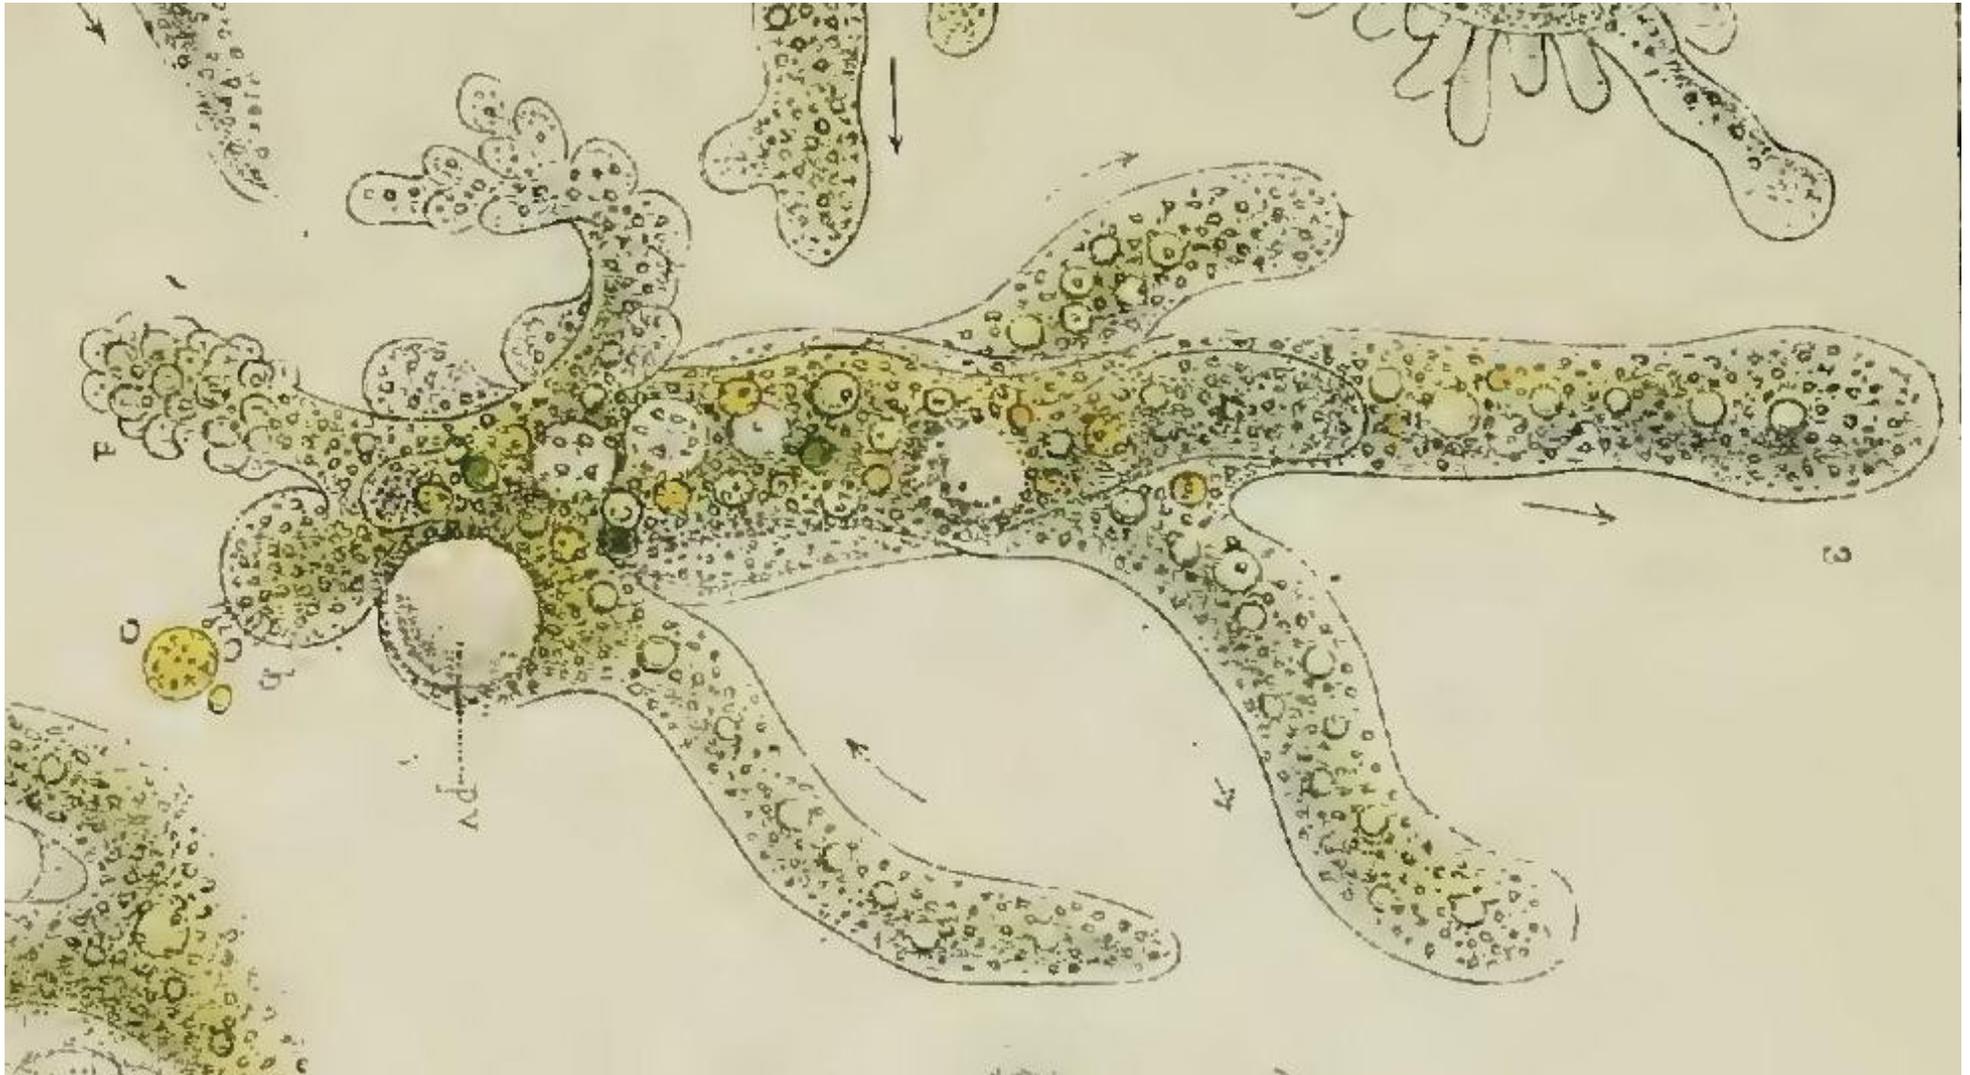

Streptococcus is a type of this microorganism that lives in your mouth and converts sugars to acids, causing cavities.

Mystery Microorganism #3

Malaria is transmitted by diseased mosquitoes carrying the microorganism Plasmodium. There is no vaccine, but malaria can be prevented by the use of screens and nets.

Mystery Microorganism #3

JOSEPH LEDY

Amoeba proteus

Mystery Microorganism #4

A variety of molds help to decompose foods.

Mystery Microorganism #4

Penicillin and other drugs can attack harmful bacteria

Mystery Microorganism #4

Mystery Microorganism #5

Mystery Microorganism #5

These produce about half of the oxygen that we breathe!