

TOOL MATCH-UP

Match the tool with the correct description of how it is used by archeologists.

to clean dirt off artifacts during excavation to carefully excavate (dig) small areas around artifacts to sift through soil to find small artifacts to carefully excavate larger areas to help measure and record the location of artifacts to take notes and record information