

In 1915, the Daughters of the American Revolution commemorated Daniel Boone's Trace through the Cumberland Gap with a series of monuments.

Join us, on the hundredth anniversary of this commemoration, as we look into the past and remember the opening of the first American west.

June 13, 2015

"Remembering Boone Trace"

Cumberland Gap National Historical Park Visitor Center

9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

606 - 246 - 1075

Meet the hidden heroines of history...

Nancy Ward - Beloved Woman of the Cherokee

Capt' Molly - Of Davis Tavern

Miss Jane - Enslaved African American

Bonny Kate - Future Wife of John Sevier

Rebecca Boone - Wife of Daniel Boone

Dedication Ceremony - 9:00 a.m. ~ Remembrance Walk - 10:00 a.m.

Living History Camps

Flintlock Demonstrations ~ Fife and Drum Corps ~ Fiddle Music ~ Open Hearth Cooking

Meet the Authors ~ Genealogy Jamboree ~ Exhibits