Countryside Farmers' Market Returns to Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens Opening Day June 26

Peninsula, Ohio - The Countryside Farmers' Market holds its 2008 grand re-opening at Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens on Thursday, June 26 at 4 p.m.

The market boasts over 30 vendors of locally produced items. High quality fresh fruits and vegetables, cut flowers, award winning cheeses, honey, grass-fed beef, pork and bison as well as many baked goods and specialty items will be available throughout the season.

Opening day includes cooking demonstrations by chef David Uecke of Anthe's at the Lakes restaurant in Akron. Samples of his creations will be available for all to taste. Celtic and world folk inspired music will be performed by Lisa and Heather Malyuk of Kent from 4 - 6:30 p.m.

Countryside Farmers' Markets are producers-only markets managed by the Countryside Conservancy. The Countryside Conservancy partners with individuals and communities to develop comprehensive solutions to protect farmland, support farmers, and grow healthy local food economies throughout Northeast Ohio.
