Brad Rose Photo Exhibit Opens in Seiberling Gallery

Peninsula, Ohio - Cuyahoga Valley National Park Association (CVNPA) is pleased to announce the opening of the photographic exhibit The Other Side of the World, displaying original works by Brad Rose. The show opens on July 14 and runs through August 16 at the John F. Seiberling Gallery, located in the CVNPA administrative offices at 1403 W. Hines Hill Road, Peninsula. Gallery Hours are Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and weekends upon request.

Brad Rose was born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio. Throughout his childhood camping trips with his family, he had always been interested in drawing and photographing the natural world. While attending Hawken School, in Gates Mills, Brad honed his interest in the arts as well as in nature.

His interests never ceased as he stated, "I attended the School of Visual Arts in Manhattan, where I studied drawing and majored in traditional, hand-drawn animation. After graduating from SVA, I moved to Tasmania, Australia, where I spent all of 2008 teaching at a school in Hobart. While there, I took several trips to various places around the island, and always took my camera with me. In September, I took a two-week trip to New Zealand's South Island, and then in December, I returned to Cleveland at the end of the school year".

CVNPA is a nonprofit, membership-based organization working in partnership with the National Park Service to provide innovative education and foster community support of Cuyahoga Valley National Park. For more information on CVNPA, please visit www.cvnpa.org.
