Primitive Campsites Available at National Park Accommodations for Backcountry Hikers and Bicyclists

Brecksville, Ohio - This summer Cuyahoga Valley National Park (CVNP) is offering five primitive campsites behind Stanford House, located at 6093 Stanford Road in Peninsula 44262. The backcountry campsites are for distance hikers and bicyclists using the nearby Ohio & Erie Canal Towpath and Buckeye trails only. Drive up use is not permitted.

The campsites are available Friday, May 28 through Monday, October 31. Reservations are available by contacting Cuyahoga Valley National Park Association (CVNPA) at (330) 657-2909 extension 119, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. Reservations need to be made three days in advance. On Saturday and Sunday, walk-up campers can reserve available sites by visiting the Trail Mix store from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Trail Mix is located at 1565 Boston Mills Road in Peninsula 44264, across from the Boston Store Visitor Center.

There is a 6-person limit for each campsite and campers are limited to 10 nights per season. The fee per night, per campsite is $18 per camper. The fee is reduced to $15 for CVNPA members. Check-in after 1 p.m. and checkout by 10 a.m. Juveniles must be accompanied by an adult at least 18 years of age. For more details on the campsites, visit www.cvnpa.org.

CVNPA is a nonprofit organization created to engage public support for the park and provide services to enhance public use and enjoyment of the park. For more information about CVNPA and its membership program, visit www.cvnpa.org or call (330) 657-2909.

CVNP encompasses 33,000 acres along the Cuyahoga River between Cleveland and Akron. Managed by the National Park Service, CVNP combines cultural, historical, recreational, and natural activities in one setting. For more information about the park, visit www.nps.gov/cuva/ or www.dayinthevalley.com/ or call (330) 657-2752 or (800) 445-9667.
