The success of the Countryside Conservancy relies on a team of dedicated staff and Volunteers. As our organization grows, so does our need for Volunteers. Serving on our Farmers' Market Volunteer Team, or as a Volunteer for one of our special events is a great way to get involved in and learn more about farmers' markets, sustainable agriculture and the local food movement across Northeast Ohio.

Please contact Stephanie Webb at 330.657.2542, or by email at swebb@cvcountryside.org to find out more about this opportunity. Visit our website at www.cvcountryside.org for information on other volunteer opportunities.

Please Note: Volunteers for this event must be 21 years of age or older.
