THE SHILOH CENTENNIAL CEREMONY

April 7, 1962, at 2:00 o'clock

in the Peach Orchard

Shiloh National Military Park, Tennessee

Today we commemorate the Battle of Shiloh, where a hundred thousand American soldiers, fresh from school, farm, and factory, fought with courage and devotion a century ago.

In this present world of angry challenge, our generation can take inspiration from their memory and learn anew the dedication to duty that places the preservation of our nation's heritage even above that of life itself.
