

Devils Tower National Monument www.nps.gov/deto

Education

The following centennial proposal is certified as eligible for Centennial Challenge funding consideration in fiscal year 2008. Funding for the Centennial Challenge requires legislation.

Circle of Sacred Smoke Sculpture

Location: Devils Tower, Wyoming
Partner(s): Kazenowa Corporation
Total Cost: $1,000,000
Proposal # 137803

Summary: The Circle of Sacred Smoke sculpture will honor the American people as a gesture of world peace by sculptor Junkyu Muto. The granite piece will address the conflict of cultures and will be placed in the park's picnic area. The sculpture will also help raise visitor awareness of the importance of the Tower to more than twenty affiliated tribes. It is the third of seven works planned for placement throughout the world; the first two are located at Vatican City and Bodhi, India. The Kazenowa Corporation is funding 800,000 of the total cost of the project. The National Park Service will pay for partial shipping costs and for the installation.

For more information contact:

Dorothy FireCloud, Superintendent, (307) 467- 5283 x 213, dorothy_firecloud@nps.gov

The twelve foot tall sculpture is representative of the first circle of smoke which ascends from the sacred pipe.