

Yosemite

Yosemite Grant 150th Anniversary

The start of the national park movement

On June 30, 1864, amid the Civil War, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Yosemite Grant Act to protect Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Grove. From the beginning, this act was a legacy for our nation. Today, the preservation of Yosemite inspires the world.

INSPIRING GENERATIONS

Save the Date

www.nps.gov/yose/anniversary

Yosemite Grant 150th Anniversary

commemorating the start of the national park movement

As we approach 2014, we invite you to visit Yosemite National Park and its surrounding communities to be a part of this historic event.

Living History
 Storytelling
 Symposiums
 Art Exhibits
 Film Festivals
 Symphonies
 And more!

For learning opportunities, activities, and updates visit us at:
www.nps.gov/yose/anniversary

