A Women's History Month Series
March 7, 15, and 20, 2013

Join us at Federal Hall National Memorial as we celebrate the most notable, influential and iconic women through film.

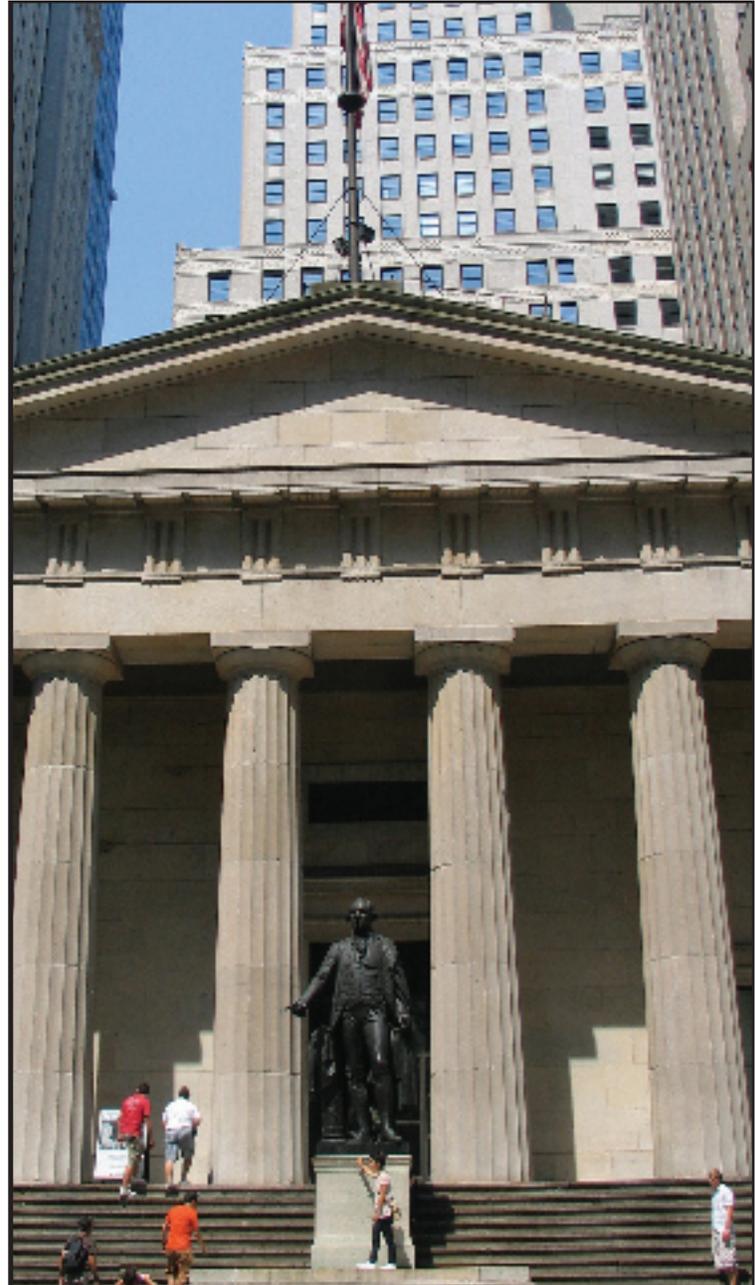

Thursday March 7, 2013 1PM
Founding Mothers

Friday March 15, 2013 2PM
One Woman One Vote

Wednesday March 20, 2013 Noon
Women in the White House

This series of films will walk you through the historic struggles of the Woman's Suffrage Movement as well as mark the successes and victories obtained along the way.

We will explore the beginnings of the struggle in the early part of the 20th century, with the first International Women's Day in 1911, the harsh realities of the Women's Suffrage Movement, all the way to the First Ladies who have exhibited what it means to be both a supporter of the nation and of the President, we pay tribute to all women who have made a difference in their communities, in society and in the world.
