Path to Discovery Program

Spring Shelling

When: Saturday, March 16, 2013

Where: Wilderness Visitor Center

Time: 12:00 Noon

For kids ages 8-12 (All are Welcome!)

Calling All Junior Rangers!

Beachcombing is a great excuse to visit the beach during the offseason, and it's always fun to find new seashells. But do you know which animals lived in these shells and what their role was in the ocean environment? Join a park ranger to learn more while you search for seashells by the seashore.

Be ready for a short hike on sand.

Dress for the weather.
