

Fifty Years of Fire Island Lecture Series

Preserving Wilderness

Thursday, April 16

7:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Sayville Library, 631-589-4440

Explore wilderness on Fire Island! Join Fire Island National Seashore's Biologist Jordan Raphael for a presentation on the natural and cultural history of the Otis Pike Fire Island High Dune Wilderness — New York State's only federally-designated wilderness.

Keeping it Wild — Fire Island's Barrier Island Wilderness

Wednesday, April 22

7:00 pm – 8:00 pm

Patchogue-Medford Library, 631-654-4700

National Park Service Wildlife Biologist Lindsay Ries discusses the history, establishment, and dynamic barrier island ecosystem of the Otis Pike Fire Island High Dune Wilderness.

Fire Island at 50 - A Look at the National Seashore in Your Backyard

Wednesday, May 20

7:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Sachem Public Library, Holbrook, NY, 631-588-5024

Fire Island National Seashore was established as a unit of the National Park System on September 11, 1964. Fifty years have come and gone and Fire Island continues to be a special place for people to live, work, and play. Come take an armchair tour of the barrier island and learn more about the natural and cultural treasures that exist right in your backyard. From the Fire Island Lighthouse to the extensive salt marshes of New York's only wilderness area, Fire Island National Seashore has something for everyone.

SAVE THE DATE: LABOR DAY WEEKEND 2015

PLEASE JOIN THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE, PARK PARTNERS, AND FIRE ISLAND RESIDENTS FOR SPECIAL EVENTS AND PROGRAMS HIGHLIGHTING THE DEDICATED STEWARDS, NATURAL HISTORY, AND CULTURAL LEGACY OF FIRE ISLAND.

