Seashells by the Seashore

When: Saturday, January 28, 2012

Time: 11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Where: East End of Parking Field 5,
Robert Moses State Park

(Program will end at the Fire Island Lighthouse)

Even though it's cold outside the winter beach is a good time to go shelling! Seashells come in all different shapes, size, and colors and winter storms and waves wash in shells that you might not find in the summertime! The life histories of some of the animals that make these shells will be discussed on this 1 mile roundtrip walk along the winter beach. A look at a collection of some uncommon Fire Island seashells that were missed on the walk will conclude this program.

Please Note:

- *Admission is Free.
- *Dress for weather.
- *Walk is on sand.
