REMEMBER AND HONOR

At the dedication of Flight 93 National Memorial, the Friends placed 2,977 luminarias along the plaza walkway and Wall of Names, honoring all lives lost in the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

JOIN US

“As long as this memorial stands, we will remember the men and women of Flight 93 and what they did here.”

– PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH

“While this memorial begins here in Shanksville, it doesn’t end at the edges of this field. It extends to all those they saved, whose lives today are possible because they gave theirs.”

– FIRST LADY MICHELLE OBAMA

HELP HONOR

“The Friends are vital to our operation. They undertake important projects, expand our reach into the community, and keep alive the spirit of partnership that has been the hallmark of this memorial.”

– JEFF REINBOLD, Superintendent
National Parks of Western Pennsylvania

“We want to ensure that future generations learn this remarkable story and experience this memorial. That’s why I joined the Friends.”

MISSION

As Friends, we welcome worldwide all who would join us in honoring the sacrifice and courage of the passengers and crew of Flight 93 by supporting the mission of the Flight 93 National Memorial with volunteers, resources, and civic engagement, so as to inspire all who visit with the Flight 93 story.

WHO ARE THE FRIENDS?

Friends groups are found at many national parks, raising awareness and appreciation for these special places and helping to provide educational and interpretive resources to enhance the experience of every visitor.

Established in 2009, the Friends of Flight 93 National Memorial is a varied group, including family and friends of the passengers and crew of Flight 93, people nationwide who have been inspired by these acts of courage, and many residents of Western Pennsylvania who wish to be part of the park's mission in a hands-on way.
