

2014 Fast Facts

Q: How many trees are we planting this year? A: 20,400 seedlings

Q: What types of trees are we planting?

Eastern White pine
 Eastern hemlock
 Pitch pine
 Red pine
 Red Spruce
 American chestnut
 Northern red oak
 Black cherry

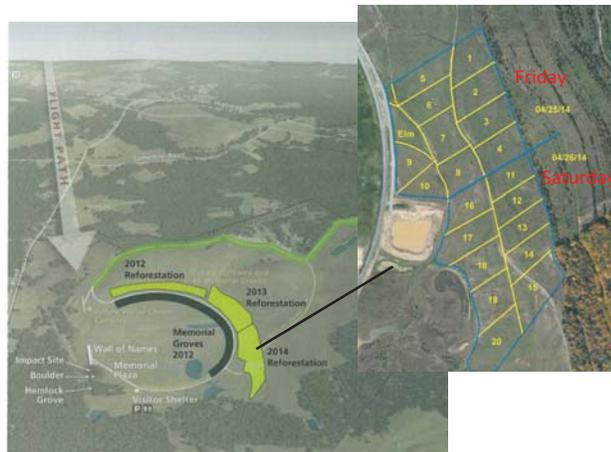

Sugar maple
 Black locust
 White oak
 Quaking aspen
 Red maple
 Yellow poplar
 Black walnut
 Shagbark Hickory

Pignut Hickory
 Bitternut Hickory
 American elm
 American hazelnut
 Silky dogwood
 Red Osier dogwood
 Scrub Oak

Q: Where are the planting plots?

This year's 30-acre planting area is south of the 23 acres planted in 2013 and the 20 acres planted in 2012. Shuttle buses will take the planting teams to their assigned plots.

On Friday we'll plant plots 1-10 and on Saturday, we'll plant plots 11-20.

Q: How many volunteers are part of this effort? A: More than 500!

Q: What groups have sent teams of tree planters?

American Legion Post 128
 Appalachian Regional Commission
 Boy Scout Troops 1313, 15, & 20
 Carpenter Technology
 Concurrent Technologies Corp.
 Enterprise Rent-A-Car
 First National Bank
 Forbes State Forest
 Friends of Flight 93

The Home Depot
 Leo Club of Berlin
 Lowe's
 Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort
 Office of Surface Mining
 R.E.I.
 Rotary Club of Mt. Lebanon
 September 11th Families Assoc.
 The Snider Foundation

Somerset Trust Company
 Southern Alleghenies Planning and Development Corp.
 Starbucks
 Tau Phi Delta Alumni
 UPS Foundation
 US Airways Flight Attendants

Q: Who are the team supervisors and support staff?

They are forestry and wildlife professionals and students from these agencies and universities:

American Chestnut Foundation
 Green Forests Work Initiative
 Indiana University of Pennsylvania
 Office of Surface Mining, Reclamation & Enforcement
 PA Department of Conservation & Natural Resources, Bureau of Forestry

PA Department of Environmental Protection, Bureau of Abandoned Mine Reclamation
 Penn State University, Main, Altoona & Dubois Campuses
 U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service
 U.S. Forest Service

Thank you for honoring the passengers and crew of Flight 93 by helping to build this memorial landscape.