

Law and Order in Fort Smith

Judge Parker

Deputy Marshals

JUDGE PARKER came to Fort Smith in 1875 to serve as the judge for the FEDERAL COURT. The court had JURISDICTION, or authority, over INDIAN TERRITORY (present day Oklahoma).

DEPUTY MARSHALS were hired by the court to help find CRIMINALS in Indian Territory. Deputies had to provide their own horse, gun, and BADGE. When a crime was committed, the court issued a WARRANT which gave permission for a deputy marshal to ARREST the suspect and bring him or her to the JAIL in Fort Smith. A TRIAL was held in the court room and ATTORNEYS for both sides presented WITNESSES and evidence. A JURY of 12 men decided if the person on trial was GUILTY or not guilty.
