

Long Island Bird Conservation Program

Presented by: Kerri Dikun

 Audubon NEW YORK

Priority Species

Current LIBCP Plover Sites

Signs and Fencing

Exclosures

Monitoring

Outreach and Education

- Bay Day Festival
- Library Lecture Series
- Working with local Audubon Chapters

Season Summary

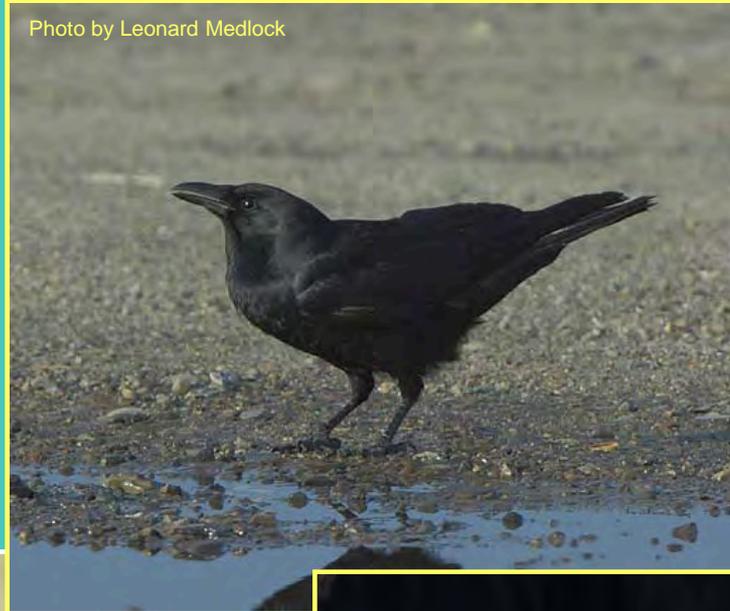

- 6 Sites
- 18 Pairs
- 8 Fledglings

- 3 Sites
- 3 Colonies
- 30 – 100 Terns
- No Chicks

Predators

Other Problems

Season Summary

Salt Marsh

Audubon's Priority Salt Marsh Species

Saltmarsh Sparrow

Seaside Sparrow

© Greg Lavaty

Black Rail

© Greg Lavaty

Clapper Rail

© Greg Lavaty

Saltmarsh Habitat & Avian Research Program

- Collaborative Project
- Many Partners
- Maureen Correll – University of Maine
- Project Goals
 - Determine what species are where
 - Determine populations

Audubon NY - SHARP

- Long Island - Many partners
- Hundreds of points
- Audubon NY - 2 Technicians
- LIBC Coordinator
- 55 Sites

Image © 2011 DigitalGlobe

Data SIO, NOAA, U.S. Navy, NGA, GEBCO
lat 40.762019° lon -72.905269° elev 29 ft

©2010 Google™

Eye alt 105.85 mi

Point Count and Callback Survey

Primary Species

© Greg Lavaty

© Greg

© Greg

© Greg

© Greg

Secondary Species

Project Highlights

- 20 Species Across 5 Marshes
- Nesting Marsh Wrens
- Nesting Ospreys
- Herons

- Priority Species
- Saltmarsh Sparrow
- Seaside Sparrow
- Clapper Rail

Questions?

Photo by: Leonard Medlock

© Greg Lavaty