Ecology Village Camping Program

Ecology Village is a two-day tent camping experience at Gateway's Floyd Bennett Field in Brooklyn, New York. While at Ecology Village, campers will become more aware of the natural environment. They will learn about composting, recycling and explore the natural and cultural resources of Floyd Bennett Field.

The program is an outdoor experience stressing the importance of environmental awareness and group cooperation. Through ranger-led activities, and exploration of uplands and marine environment, children will discover the joys of camping and the great outdoors. Gateway NRA will provide tents, cooking equipment and resource specialists to support the program.

The program is open to youngsters between the ages of eight and fourteen who are in a non-profit organized group that can provide adult leadership. There is a $50.00 processing cost for the camping permit. All checks are to be made payable to the National Park Service. The processing cost is non-refundable.

New youth group leaders must attend a 30-hour. Leadership training is July 08-10, 2011.

July 08, 10am-4pm.

July 09, 12am to 12:00pm on July 10, 2011.

This will be the only opportunity for new leaders to receive training.

Returning counselors must attend one of the camping refreshers on June 29, 2011 and July 01, 2011 4:00pm – 6:00pm, located at Ecology Village, Bldg. 70.

Criteria for Participation

1. Groups must provide adult leaders who will assume responsibility for conducting the program.
2. Ecology Village is for non-profit groups.
3. Groups must provide leaders who will attend a 30-hour training session. The 30-hour workshop is for new counselors only, who will be accompanying youths. Returning counselors must attend a refresher workshop.
