

Visitor Programs and Events -- Winter 2015

Sandy Hook

Addenda – please note these events have been added:

Battery Gunnison/New Peck Restoration

Saturday, 17 January, Noon to 4 p.m.

The Army Ground Forces Association (AGFA) is a volunteer group in WWII-era uniform restoring and interpreting Battery Gunnison/New Peck. Visitors are invited to stop by to chat and learn more about Battery Gunnison/New Peck, the defense of NY Harbor and Fort Hancock's activities in January 1943 during this restoration work day.

Battery Gunnison/New Peck Restoration

Saturday, 21 February,
Noon to 4 p.m.

The Army Ground Forces Association (AGFA) is a volunteer group in WWII-era uniform restoring and interpreting Battery Gunnison/New Peck. Visitors are invited to stop by to chat and learn more during this work day about Battery Gunnison/New Peck, the defense of NY Harbor and Fort Hancock's activities in February 1943. February marks the 73rd Anniversary of the initiation of work converting Battery Gunnison/New Peck into the battery we see today.

We continue our observance of the 250th anniversary of the Sandy Hook Lighthouse. This wonderful winter portrait by Robert Hillmann was one of the top contenders in the Gateway Photo Contest.

Gateway Photo Contest 2014 Exhibit: Winners and Top Contenders

Opening Reception and Award Presentation
Saturday, January 24, 2015, 2-4pm
Meet and greet the photographers

Exhibit continues Wednesday — Sunday, 9-4 until April 15
Jamaica Bay Wildlife Refuge
One Cross Bay Boulevard
Broad Channel, 11693
718-318-4340

The opening and exhibit are in Broad Channel, Queens. We hope that many of you will join us.