

Welcome to Fort Tilden!

Help keep Fort Tilden safe and clean for everyone.

A day at the beach should be enjoyable for everyone. To ensure that Fort Tilden's resources are protected, and that visitors to the park are safe, the National Park Service has put the following rules into effect:

- Deposit all trash in appropriate receptacles.
- Do not bring glass bottles into the park.
- Do not bring alcohol into the park. Alcohol may be purchased at concession stands at Jacob Riis Park.
- Barbequing is prohibited at Fort Tilden. It is permitted only in designated areas at Jacob Riis Park. Fires on all beaches are prohibited.
- Fort Tilden's beach is unguarded. For your safety, only swim on the guarded beach at Jacob Riis Park.
- Keep off of the dunes. They are very fragile!
- Pets are prohibited on all beaches, March 15 – September 15.
