

The 131st Anniversary of the Death of Ulysses S. Grant

July 23, 2016

On July 23, 1885, Ulysses S. Grant, General of the Army and 18th President of the United States, passed away, surrounded by his family. His funeral in New York City drew a million and half spectators.

To mark this historic occasion, please join Frank Scaturro, president of the Grant Monument Association, for remarks at the memorial's visitor center. He will present at 11, and again at 2.

A wreath-laying will occur at noon inside the memorial.

The final resting place of Ulysses S. Grant and his wife Julia, is the largest mausoleum in North America. It testifies to a people's gratitude for the man who ended the Civil War as Commanding General of the Union Army and then, as President of the United States, strove to heal the nation.
