NOVEMBER 16, 17 AND 18, 2015

OPPORTUNITIES FOR TEACHERS, PRINCIPALS AND ADMINISTRATORS

NOVEMBER 16: FOR ELEMENTARY AND LOWER MIDDLE SCHOOL TEACHERS

NOVEMBER 17: FOR UPPER MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

NOVEMBER 18: FOR PRINCIPALS, ADMINISTRATORS AND SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS

Enjoy a day out of your office or classroom to preview all there is to do with and for the students of your district at Gettysburg National Military Park and Eisenhower National Historic Site. Plenty of behind-the-scenes opportunities, curriculum connections, and some leadership lessons for your district staff from Dwight D. Eisenhower and those involved in the 1863 battle of Gettysburg.

Don't miss this opportunity for a day of fun and learning...
because teachers and administrators should get a field trip too!

JULY 13, 14, 15, 2016
TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

SPEND ONE, TWO OR ALL THREE DAYS WITH US!

DAY 1: DOCUMENTING CIVIL WAR NOVELS AND FILMS

(with a visit to Little Round Top)

DAY 2: SOLDIER LETTERS, DIARIES AND PENSION FILES IN THE CLASSROOM

(with visits to hospital sites on the battlefield)

DAY 3: "FLAGS, GUNS AND PROCLAMATIONS": COMPLEX MUSEUM OBJECTS AS DISCUSSION STARTERS AND WRITING PROMPTS

(with visits to our curatorial storage facility)

Your Civil War unit should be an integral part of your Common Core or other document-based learning objectives. Spend time with Civil War experts and a team of fellow teachers to investigate compelling Civil War era documents and objects, create reading strategies, learning objectives and assessments for your students, and go on a mini field trip to apply that knowledge. All the while, you will be able to check off several reading, writing, speaking and listening skill sets for your classroom.

At your Day(s) With Documents, you will receive plenty of primary source materials for your classroom, and earn up to 12 hours of continuing education instruction.

APPLICATION

Limited accommodation scholarships are available for Title I school teachers; if applicable, please request in Comments below.
