

Bartlett Cove Interpretive Activities, Summer 2026

May 22 - September 7*

Fun, informative, and FREE!

Check the online calendar for details and current updates:

Enjoy programming at two locations:

National Park Visitor Center

Upstairs in the Glacier Bay Lodge

Information Desk Staffed Daily 11:00 am to 5:30 pm

Walk through museum-style natural history exhibits (open during the lodge's front desk hours: 6 am - 11 pm), talk with a ranger, watch a film, relax in a reading nook, and browse Alaska Geographic books and gifts for sale (card/smartphone tap-to-pay only).

Xunaa Shuká Hít (Huna Ancestors' House)

Along the shoreline near the Glacier Bay Lodge

*Open May 26 - August 29

Open Tuesday-Saturday 1:00 to 5:30 pm

Discover the beauty and significance of this building, a collaborative effort between the National Park Service and Hoonah Indian Association.

Visitor hours may be altered to accommodate special events and Tribal/NPS uses.

Check the Glacier Bay Calendar for updates! (Scan QR code at top)

1:30 pm

Guided Walk: Forest Loop Trail

Daily | 90 minutes, one mile, easy.

Walk with a ranger to track the "footprints" left by a glacier and discover hidden stories of Glacier Bay's forests and shore. Note: a self-guiding walk is available at any time using the NPS App.

Location: Meet at Lodge Entryway

1:00 -
3:45 pm

Open House at Xunaa Shuká Hít

Tuesday - Saturday

Drop in to meet a tribal interpreter to learn more about Huna Lingít life and their treasured Glacier Bay Homeland.

Location: Xunaa Shuká Hít

3:45 &
4:30 pm

Sanctuary for the Future and Healing Across the Waters

Location: Xunaa Shuká Hít

Tuesday - Saturday

Enjoy Sanctuary for the Future (25 minutes) at 3:45 pm, a film showing how the Tribal House came to be and its deep meaning to the Xunaa Káawu. Following that, experience our award-winning film, Healing Across the Waters (40 minutes) at 4:30 pm, highlighting our collaborative partnership and continued healing journey.

11:00 am

Glacier Bay Film Showing in the Lodge Theater

Daily | 11:00 am and upon request 11:30 am - 5:00 pm

Selected film will vary: Forces of Change tells the complex and dynamic story of Glacier Bay, and Beneath the Reflections (2025) dives into the underwater world of the Bay. Available to play upon request, ask the park ranger on duty between 11:30 am and 5:00 pm.

6:00 pm

Ranger Evening Program: Glacier Bay Lodge Theater

Daily | 30 minutes

Join a park ranger for daily presentations in Bartlett Cove! In the Glacier Bay Lodge Theater (upstairs), dive deep into what makes Glacier Bay special. Program begins at 6 pm, typically lasting about 30 minutes. Program topics vary nightly: See weekly flyer or web calendar for program topics, scan QR code at top for website link.

