STORM DAMAGES TRAIL TO RAINBOW BRIDGE NATIONAL MONUMENT

PAGE, AZ Recent storm activity has caused extensive damage to the access trail to Rainbow Bridge National Monument. For visitor safety, the trail has been closed and access to the Monument from Lake Powell is not possible. With more inclement weather forecasted, the National Park Service anticipates this closure will remain in effect until weather conditions allow for a complete damage assessment and repairs. For continued updates, visit the park's website at www.nps.gov/rabr or www.nps.gov/glca.
