Army Heritage Day, Saturday, June 19-20

Discover over 150 years of Army history at Governors Island National Monument. National Park Rangers, the 319th US Army Band, Revolutionary and Civil War living historians and members of today's military will provide re-enactments, children's programming, musical demonstrations, and lectures which pay tribute to army life on Governors Island.

Participating Living History Groups:

Colonel Albert Pawling's Levies
The 119th New York Volunteers

The Long Island Writers' Guild Returns to Governors Island, Sunday, July 11

Spend an afternoon with members of the Long Island Writers' Guild for a public reading of original works. Topics will explore the relationship between Long Island and New York City. Some of these works are found in the Guild's anthology - 2001: A Long Island Odyssey. If you would like to read your original work we will have an open mic on a time available basis. All work needs to be appropriate for a family audience.

Please e-mail your submissions to Dennis Kotch at dkotch@empire.state.ny.us

Civil War Weekend - August 7,8

The National Park Service, 119th New York Volunteers, The GawdAwful Mess and Battery G of the First Pennsylvania Light Artillery will provide family friendly activities, living history demonstrations, music and other programs designed to introduce you to the men and women of the Governors Island Garrison during the summer of 1863.
