

Guadalupe Mountains National Park Youth Centennial Poster Contest

What do you think Guadalupe Mountains National Park will look like in 100 years? Help us celebrate the 100th anniversary of the National Park Service by drawing what you hope the Guadalupe Mountains will look like 100 years from now.

Poster Contest Details

Who can participate? All ages 6 – 18 can submit artwork for the contest. There will be three different age categories: 6-8, 9-11, and 12-18. Once submitted all art work becomes property of the National Park Service and will not be returned to the artist. Submitted art work will be used to support and promote the NPS Centennial program online and through promotional materials.

What should you draw or paint? Participants can draw or paint the Guadalupe Mountains National Park as they hope it will be in the next 100 years. What will it look like? Will there be mountains, Chihuahuan desert habitat and animals? Remember that accuracy counts so visit the Guadalupe Mountains National Park for a hike and study the wildlife and plants that live in this landscape, or go online and research. Check out the Guadalupe Mountains National park website to see what type of plants and animals are found in the Chihuahuan desert.

What should I use to create my contest submission?

All poster submissions must be on at least an 8 ½" x 11" poster board or piece of paper. Suggested media can be crayons, pastels, color pencils, markers, pen and ink or paint.

What can I win?

The winning entry will receive a gift certificate and have their winning entry made into the Guadalupe Mountains Centennial Poster. The winning drawing will also be featured on the 2017 Guadalupe Mountains Annual Pass. Each age category will also have an honorable mention. Check the website for more information about prizes and contest rules.
