

Volunteer of the Month

Colleen Keegan

Harpers Ferry National Historical Park (HAFE) staff would like to celebrate the contributions of Education Intern, Colleen Keegan.

Originally from New Hampshire, Colleen is a recent graduate of Wells College in Aurora, New York. At Wells, she majored in history and with a minor in secondary education. Summer 2009, Colleen began her volunteer work at HAFE as an intern with Visitor Services. She has been working with the education branch since Summer 2010 taking on a number of projects; assisting with school reservations, developing marketing tools for the education branch in area schools and most significantly, she has been able to complete a lot of sewing work. Sewing includes; assisting with student vodcast costuming, making program materials, and repairing period clothing.

Recently, Colleen made the decision to spend her second summer here at Harpers Ferry with the education branch learning and expanding her knowledge of the National Park System.

In her free time, Colleen enjoys sewing swimming, water-skiing, canoeing and snowmobiling. We are very grateful to Colleen for offering her talents to the education branch and Harpers Ferry National Historical Park!

Just because you live out of state does not mean you can't volunteer for Harpers Ferry National Historical Park! Anything is possible! If you are interested in learning more about volunteer opportunities at Harpers Ferry, please log on to www.nps.gov/hafe, or call (304)535-5017.
