

Wood Duck

(Aix sponsa)

- Wood Ducks love to eat seeds, fruits, insects, and some small aquatic species
 - They are strong fliers and can fly up to speeds as fast as 30 miles per hour
 - Wood Ducks live in bottomland forests, swamps, freshwater marshes, and beaver ponds
-
- Size: Medium
 - Color: Males have green heads, dark brown sides and a white belly. Females are a gray brown with white spots on their chest

