Music at The Grange

On Sunday, December 13, come visit Hamilton Grange National Memorial between 1:00-4:00, to get into the holiday spirit and hear music played as it would have been when Alexander and Elizabeth Hamilton would have been your hosts.

Emily Bader and Michael Goudket will entertain guests on baroque violin, recorders, and bass viola da gamba. Enjoy party music that the British danced to in Philadelphia, tunes written for little Wolfgang by his father Leopold Mozart, and traditional holiday carols. Song books will be available to lend for those who wish to join the caroling.

The furnished rooms will be open for self-guided tours between 2:00 and 4:00.
