Comment Form

Haleakalā National Park
Draft Foundation Document
January 2015

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Use this form to give us your ideas and opinions. Attach additional sheets if needed. Fold the form on the line, tape it closed, and mail it (no postage necessary). You may also submit comments online at http://parkplanning.nps.gov/HALE_Foundation. Please submit your comments by February 20, 2015.

1. Park Purpose. Does the draft purpose statement capture why you think Haleakalā National Park was made a National Park Service unit?
2. Significance Statements. The draft significance statements describe what is unique about Haleakalā National Park. Do they capture what you feel is most important?
3. Fundamental Resources and Values. The draft fundamental resources and values (FRVs) are the ideas and concrete resources that merit primary consideration for protection and management by the National Park Service. Do they capture what you think is most valuable?
4. Interpretive Themes. Do the draft interpretive themes capture what the American people should know about Haleakalā National Park?
5. Please share any additional comments or suggestions for us to consider as we refine the draft Foundation Document.
