

February 21 & 28, 2016, 2:00-3:30 pm
On The Hampton Plantation:
The Overseer's House, Slave Quarters
and Farm Tour

Dressed in period attire, Park Ranger Anokwale will guide visitors through the authentic slave quarters, dairy and overseer's home and give voice to the enslaved African Americans who made the Ridgelys' lavish lifestyle possible. Participants will have the opportunity to experience first hand, replicas of items used during the 1800s on the plantation. Bring the entire family.

Admission and parking are free. Reservations are not needed. For more information visit www.nps.gov/hamp or call 410 823-1309 x254. Tour dates are subject to change. Please call to confirm or consult website. Hampton NHS, 535 Hampton Lane, Towson, MD 21286
