

Huli Hele (search here, there and everywhere) for artifacts discovered by archeologists in the ancient kauhale (settlement) of Kealakomowaena in Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park. Artifacts are things left behind by people from the past. These artifacts tell us many stories about the people who lived and traveled through here. Using this plan view map (archeological scale drawing) circle each hidden artifact you find!

